CLUB NEWS AND EVENTS

Saturday afternoon my phone rang and the voice on the other end said to hold that the president wanted to speak to me. The voice told me that if I liked my guns, I could keep my guns. PERIOD. Now this was strange because this voice did not have a Chicago accent. Silly me! Wrong president. It was Charlie. Skip was making another of his best guess weather predictions and freezing rain and snow was heading our way. He said Hell was about to freeze over and the November shoot was cancelled. What? Does anyone remember stories of it being so cold we had to use antifreeze for patch lube. I don't know if that was true or not but it sure makes a good story. Since when did RRR become weather weenies? This reminds me when my grandson was four years old and we called at Christmas. There had been a snow storm the night before and Little Jeff said, "Its colder than a witch's XXX." He went on to add, "But I've never seen one so I don't know what they look like." Children and low information voters take things so literally. As it turned out Skip was about as much on the mark as Maxwell Smart, "Sorry about that Chief. Missed it by that much."

Shotgun Sunday didn't fare any better. Dean told me he was there and nobody came. Well, not entirely. A guest from Oklahoma came down. He looked at Dean. Dean looked back. One pulled and the other shot. After two rounds each they gave up and went home. Sort of embarrassing for the club. THERE WILL BE NO SHOTGUN SUNDAY IN DECEMBER. Dean will try again in January. If you don't use it, you loose it. It is not as stern as it sounds. There is just a lot going on in December.

You are cordially invited to the Red River Renegades Christmas Party Saturday, December 14th, 2012 Beginning at 6:30 pm at Pat & Roger Fowler's home at 10960 Longley Road, Iowa Park, Texas. Bring your favorite finger food and gifts for the Chinese Gift Exchange ($10.00 value, make mine $100). Hope to see you there! As usual there will be good companionship, good food, good gossip, good spirits, and more fun and enjoyment than any human being deserves. Life doesn't get better than that.

Ed Pelleau had a close one last weekend. "Turns out I had a blood clot in each lung. It is believed it came from my knee replacement surgery last month. I had been on blood thinners for 10 days after the surgery but apparently it was not long enough. The clots threw my heart into A Fib. I spent three days in the hospital and now I'm on blood thinners for life. They can't do anything for the A Fib until the clots dissolve. So here I am with a “Chitty Chitty Bang Bang” of a heart. Glad I’m here to tell you about it. Clots to the lung are normally fatal let alone two, one to each side of the lung!!!!”

Quote of the day by Dianne Feinstein:

"All vets are mentally ill in some way and government should prevent them from owning firearms." Yep, she really said it on Thursday, 7/25/13, in a meeting in front of the Senate Judiciary Committee. And the quote below from the LA Times is priceless. Sometimes even the L.A. Times gets it right. “There's no getting around the fact that the last time anyone saw the likes of Barbara Boxer, Dianne Feinstein, Maxine Waters, and Nancy Pelosi, they were stirring a cauldron when the curtain went up on 'Macbeth'. The four of them are like jackasses who happen to possess the gift of blab. You don't know if you should condemn them for their stupidity or simply marvel at their ability to form words.”— Columnist Burt Prelutsky, Los Angeles Times.

The IRS has done their part to curb spending with the purchase of fuel efficient vehicles for their enforcers....uhh....bent nose Italian godfathers.....uhh....agents.

Life Thoughts & Trivia

Every morning when a when a gazelle wakes up he realizes he must be the faster than the slowest lion or he will be killed and eaten. Every morning when a lion wakes up he realizes he must be faster than the slowest gazelle or he will starve. It does not matter whether you are in Africa or Texas, when the sun comes up you had better be ready to start running.

Let it not be said that Wichita Falls does not have diversity. Where else in the world can you experience all four seasons in one day?

No matter how you look at it Congress and the Administration has been an utter failure in protecting the rights of American citizens and the best interests of our country. This is best illustrated by the fact that DAMMIT I'M MAD spelled backwards is DAMMIT I'M MAD.

Match Results for the 2013 ASMLA Shotgun Championships - Alabama State Shotgun Shoot.

There were 27 shooters from seven different states competing in this year's championships.

2. There were 3725 clay targets thrown (A new record).
3. One perfect score was fired in the Low Gun Championship.
4. Two people managed to fire a perfect score in the re-entry skeet matches.
5. One perfect score was fired in the 16 yard trap match.

One of the highlights of the shoot came when all the competitors got to shoot Charles Martin's hat after he fired his first perfect score in low gun. His hat bravely faced the firing squad without exhibiting emotion and died an honorable death. Sam Gladden had the sad duty of administering the coup de grace; he assured all the competitors that there was no life left in the hat when he did the deed.

Jack Stoner and Larry Hutcherson were the two shooters firing a perfect score in re-entry skeet, forcing a shoot off that was decided when Larry Hutchison missed with his first shot. (Gerald Bridges said "Hutcherson must have attended the Larry Reynolds school of shoot-off".)

John Cleveland was forced to relinquish his death grip on the Trap Wounded Bird Award when Jack Stoner set a new record low score of 12 in the Trap Championship.

David Yeubanks showed the trap shooters how things are supposed to be done when he fired a perfect score in the 16 yard trap match. We did not get to shoot his hat as David has shot more straights than Linda Yeubanks has cats.
