Hope each and every one of you will make an effort to come out and participate in the shoot this year....you know, you can't win if you don't enter and remember, this shoot has Good Prizes – gift certificates to Marvin's store!!! Now how can anyone say no to that? We are also trying to make it easier on everyone by having a one-day-only shoot. This will make it less expensive and hopefully work won't get in the way so all of you ..... Come on out and have a great time. We're even going to have homemade chili and who knows what else... If you miss it you will be sorry! Also, we are coming up on deer season and you will need to be sure your gun is sighted in. Just one more reason to show up!!!

SHOTGUN NEWS

I'll tell you what.....we have finally done something right in the Big Man's eyes. On Shotgun Sunday, it rained and it rained and it rained! Needless to say, Roger was more than happy to postpone the shoot for that reason. It will probably be made up later in the month and those who shoot shotgun will be notified.

We are starting to get calls about the Shotgun Soiree for 2012. WOW! This next year marks the 16th Annual Shotgun Soiree. We are having it the weekend after Easter which makes the dates April 12, 13, 14, & 15, 2012. If you are a Renegade and you haven't attended this event.....well.....let me say that you are missing one of the most fun times you can have at the Renegade Range! There are more tall tales told and black powder burned that you can possibly imagine. I don't know how some of those folks shoot as many rounds as they do and go at it again the next day...my arm would fall off. It is so much fun though, if you haven't been a part of it, make this year to come out. You won't be sorry! Besides that, Pat Fowler will be running her famous snack shack and you know that food is good! Let's make this one for the books!

"Another bullseye! What do you think of black powder guns now, Ben?"
