

RENEGADE INQUIRER

June 10 13

Another year has come and gone with a bang! Bad joke. We had a very successful “May Black Powder Invitational Muzzle Loading I Can Shoot Better Than You And Your Gun Is Uglier Than Mine” event. First off we need to give our appreciation to the folks that provided the wonderful meal. Jimmy Barnes and Jack Shephard that made sure that no one went home hungry.

As a local radio personality is fond of saying, “Gonna eat ‘till you hurt yourself.” Can’t get a better testimonial than that. Also thanks to all who contributed to the prize table. Winning gives folks bragging rights but prizes sure do sweeten the pot.

We had 40 registered shooters competing over the three days. Friday started off a little slow but picked up Saturday and Sunday. It makes one count their blessings to be able to see old friends again this year. Every year our ranks get smaller and the economy makes it more difficult to attend all the events we would like. Now the Renegades do not live by the politically correct T-Ball rules of we don’t keep score because someone might get their feelings hurt. With that said, here is the list of winners. Now that does not mean that there are losers because if you were there life doesn’t get better than that.

Oh my goodness! There were some scores that were way beyond XXX. So on to club business. We paid Caesar what Caesar was due in April. Now is the time to pay club dues. So be sure to attend the June shoot and renew your membership for another year. With that downer out of the way it is time for an upper. Here are the Renegade aggregate winners for 2012-2013. There are some pretty good numbers for some of the folks. It is no secret that you cannot win if you do not play. Pick an aggregate. Show up every month. Turn in all targets even if it is a big fat zero. Three targets with 25 points each add up to more than one 50XXXXX target at the end of the year.

In year 1849 Liver Eatin' Johnson agreed to guide the young German Baron Von Heinie to the gold fields in California. Along the way Johnson was teaching the young Barron mountain lore and survival skills. One night was cloudless and clear. The heavens were open to the world. They had bedded down for the night.

Johnson poked the Barron with his elbow. "Hey, Heinie. Look up in the sky and tell me what you see."

Von Heinie lay there looking up into the night taking in the beauty of the night. Finally he replied, "Her Liver Eatin' I am amazed at the wonders of nature. It makes me feel so insignificant when observing the expanse of the universe. We are less than a pebble of sand on the beach when compared to the billions of stars in the heavens. All the creatures of the earth and how they live in harmony overwhelm me. All this is so pristine and pure. These gifts to mankind are so expanse I would imagine we are the first humans to gaze upon them from this area."

For the next several minutes Von Heinie lay contented there in the glory of the beauty of the night. Finally he said, "What about you, Her Liver Eatin'?"

"NO YOU DURN TENDERFOOT, PILGRIM, PORAGE EATIN', WEENIE FOOL! IF YOU CAN SEE THE STARS THEN DURN INJUNS STOLE OUR TENT AGAIN!"

IT TAKES A VILLAGE IDIOT

A five-year-old Calvert Maryland boy was interrogated for two hours until he wet himself and suspended for 10 days after school officials caught with playing with a "cowboy-style cap gun," the Washington Post reports. The mother, a high school teacher, was called by the principal at 10:50 a.m. and was told that her son had the cap gun and pretended to shoot someone on the bus. She said that both the kindergartner and his first-grade sister, sitting nearby on the bus, disputed that account. The mother said the principal told her that if the cap gun had been loaded with caps, it would have been deemed an explosive and police would have been called in.
